

Present 1

Vital Input - Are you part of it?

Present 1 is the first in a series of thought provoking Tone Poems with important messages for this particular era in which we live. We feel that Life has to change post Virus, as do many... Humans need to become more sensitive to, and work with, Nature - not be 'confrontational' or 'destructive' to its mysterious ways. This is a major part of the motivation behind these works being released, and there is more to come... Whilst we hope you will agree that the poetry and music stands up on its own, more than this, these pieces use the power of certain words to 'Breathe Life Into Being' and specific sonic frequencies, keys and harmonies to which Humans are sensitive. The premis is that, if the lines are repeated regularly, their message will enter the Human psyche and change awareness. Both sounds, words, semantics and frequency operate therefore, as a form of Affirmation. Aspects of our work have been confirmed by latest research, most notably, that DNA can be altered both internally and as an external manifestation in the physical world through constant repeating of the practices provided. Some have observed an ASMR quality to the productions, but this was not intentional!
